The above amount was made up with about the usual variety. The outward movement of breadstuffs continues active, but the shipments are not beyond the usual quantity for the season. Provisions to some extent have been shipped to ports in Franco. There is nothing out of the usual line in the exportation of last week, except the aggregate, which shows an increase on that of the week previous.

The annexed statement exhibits the quantity and value of certain articles, other than foreign dry goods, imported into this port during the week ending and including Friday, Jan. 13, 1855:

This year, thus far, the importations have been comparatively limited, and so have the exports. In the absence of specie shipments, the balance runs up rapidly against us in the foreign trade of this port, but not, we trust, to an extent which will not be liquidated by the exportation of our staple products from the South. The principal items of import into this district last week were as follows: Coffee, $144,367; cream tartar, $35,391; raisins, $33,463; undressed skins, $61,802; Iron, $73,371; lead, $38,912; sugar, $60,466; tea, $77,004; watches $78,101; champagne, $45,491.
